In the 1970s, Laurel Canyon (in the Hollywood Hills West district of Los Angeles) became a musical Eden, where creativity thrived and harmonies flourished. The air was alive with the iconic sounds of Fleetwood Mac, The Eagles, Linda Ronstadt, Crosby, Stills & Nash, Neil Young, Carole King, James Taylor, Joni Mitchell, Jackson Browne, America, The Byrds and The Doors —all of whom made this magical enclave their home. California Dreamin' features the fabulous vocal harmony trio The Beggars, who take us back to enjoy the music of that magical time and place. Collect your ticket on Enrolment Day or from Melissa in The Pod.
